guine enough to believe that our subscribers RUCKWHEAT FLOUR! will ere long be compelled to allow that not a few individual numbers of our journal are singly worth the yearly subscription price.

Our plans are comprehensive and liberal. We only need the 1,500 subscription list to make our hopes a reality, and to assure our friends and fellow-citizens of Bloomfield and Montclair of all they desire in this enterprise and of a manifold return for their little investment.

Shall we have that number? This is an opportunity that should not be lost, but to secure it, will require co-operation and promptness. We will await with solicitude the answe which the return of the Prospectus list shall

Lost-A cane of cocoa-wood; straight, short, with an ivory knob at one end, without a ferule at the other. It was left, some months ago, at the house of some friend in Bloomfield. Being valued as a gift from a departed friend, the owner will be grateful for any information in reference to it, which may be left at the Post Office or with either of the editors.

Only four New York Insurance Companies have thus far suspended in consequence of losses sustained by the Boston fire. These are the Market, International, Hurnboldt and Washington. It is rumored, bowever, that one or two others will be obliged to succumb.
